Updates to MEDITECH's Bed Board are Just a Phone Call Away

Housekeeping should focus on making beds available for new patients, not on technology. All too often, hospitals are challenged with easily and efficiently communicating bed status updates from housekeeping to MEDITECH's Bed Board. Multiple phone calls and notes left in nursing stations are typical ways that this information is communicated, which results in inefficient care and unrealized revenue.

Forward Advantage has developed a seamless integration with MEDITECH's Bed Board to deliver bed status updates in real-time.
